Self-Inquiry

Declaration: I/we expressly declare that I/we have the necessary financial resources to effectively meet my/our obligations arising from the rental contract in full, and in particular, to pay the rent, including all utilities, on time. I am/we are currently employed. I am/we are aware that providing false information constitutes the criminal offence of fraud. I/we declare that the statements made above are truthful, and expressly acknowledge that the provision of any false information is a substantial reason for the landlord to terminate the rental contract without advance notice.

I/we agree that my/our details will be stored in a database administrated by KAMPMEYER Immobilien GmbH. I am/we are aware that the information I/we provided will be passed on to the potential contracting party (e.g. the seller or landlord). I/we agree to henceforth receive advertising from KAMPMEYER Immobilien GmbH until my/our revocation, which may occur at any time. The consent hereby given may be revoked at any time – a brief message is sufficient.

SCHUFA-clause in regard to requests for renting

I agree that KAMPMEYER Immobilien GmbH (hereinafter referred to as the Broker), in its capacity as broker, transmits data to SCHUFA Holding AG, Kormoranweg 5, 65201 Wiesbaden, Germany, regarding the application for this lease brokered by the Broker and receives information about me from SCHUFA.

Notwithstanding the above, the lessor will transmit to SCHUFA information concerning his outstanding claims against me (for example legally established claims after a termination of tenancy agreement according to §§ 543, subparagraph 2 No. 3, 569 subparagraph 3 BGB [German Civil Code] respectively because of delayed payment according to § 573 subparagraph 2 No. 1 BGB [German Civil Code]). The transmission of the above mentioned information complies with § 28a subparagraph 1 sentence 1 Bundesdatenschutzgesetz (Federal Data Protection Act), if I haven't settled the debts due, the transmission is necessary for the protection of legitimate interests of the lessor or of third persons and the claim is enforceable at law or I have admitted the claim explicitly.

Furthermore the lessor will transmit data about noncontractual behaviour (for example fraudulent or abusive behaviour) to SCHUFA. These notifications are permitted, if and to the extent they are necessary for the protection of legitimate interests of the lessor or of third persons and there are no reasons for the assumption that your legitimate interest in non-transmission prevails.

SCHUFA stores and uses the received data. The usage of the data comprises the calculation of a probability value on the basis of the database of SCHUFA for the evaluation of the credit risk (Score). The received data will also be transmitted to contractual partners of SCHUFA domiciled in the European Economic Area and Swiss for the purpose of evaluation of creditworthiness of natural persons. The contractual partners of SCHUFA are companies that bear contingency risks based on their goods and services (in particular credit institutions, credit card providers, leasing and renting companies, trade companies, telecommunication companies, utility companies, insurance- and debt collection companies). SCHUFA provides personal data only if a legitimate interest is believably stated and the transmission is permitted after due consideration of the interests of all parties. Hence, the scope of the data provided may vary depending on the kind of contractual partner. Further on SCHUFA uses the data for the verification of the identity and the age of persons on request of their contractual partners, which are providing for example services on the internet.

I can get information from SCHUFA about the stored data related to me. More information regarding the SCHUFA information procedure and the Score procedure are provided on www.meineschufa.de. The postal address of SCHUFA is:
